SARATOGA STAKE ENTRIES

Numerically Smaller Than Last Year, but Strong in Quality.

All the Noted Racers of the Country Are Included Among the Nominations.

NEW YORK, N. Y., April 3.—Entries to the Saratoga stakes, to be run during the August meeting of 1919, closed Monday, March 31, with a total of 1,704 nominations, an appreciable falling off numerically when compared with the 2,004 nominations for the same stakes in 1918. However, the high class of this year's entries easily offsets the loss in numbers. All the acknowledged stars of the turf are included among the nominations, with the pick of the two-year-olds of the most prominent stables east and west named for the juvenile events. For the famous Saratoga Cup such noted racers as Sun Briar, Roamer, Old Rosebud, Cudgel, Westy Hogan, Omar Khayyam, Exterminator, Eternal, Billy Kelly and others appear among the entries, and the same list is also found in several other of the valuable and important fixtures that are decided annually at America's most famous racing center. A glance over the nominations to the various Saratoga stake features reveals the fact that all the best horses in the country, from the baby racers up to the handicap division, will be seen competing for the rich prizes offered by the Saratoga Racing Association over the track that the popular old Roamer established the new mile record against time last August, when he shattered the long existing mark of the famous Salvator.

A comparative statement of entries in Saratoga stakes for last year and this year is as follows:

CURRENT NOTES OF THE TURF

Lucullite's racing this year will be confined to sprinting distances, at which he is expected to prove quite formidable.

In Buenos Aires, South America, the native hospitals are practically supported by a percentage from the totalizator and the lotteries, the latter being legalized.

The first prize in the $500 nomenclature competition, conducted by the London Sportsman for a name for the colt by Sunstar—Sceptre, was awarded to the person who suggested Lucifer's Rod.

S. C. Hildreth will ship his stable of star racers to Havre de Grace shortly. His Kentucky Derby and Preakness Stakes candidates will be given their final preparation at the Harford track. All have wintered well and are quite forward in their preliminary work.

Max Morenz, uncle of Martin Nathanson, and a respected Chicagoan of many years residence, died at his home, 631 Barry avenue, on Tuesday. He was 81 years old, and for many years acted as financial secretary for the late John Condon, as well as for the Harlem Jockey Club when it was in operation.

Mr. J. B. Joel is resuming racing in England, and his horses will again be trained by C. Morton, who temporarily retired at the close of 1915. In previous years the important winners trained by Morton for Mr. Joel included Sunstar, Jest, Princess Dorrie, Our Lassie, Glass Doll, Your Majesty and Black Jester.

So great is the popularity of racing in Spain that a number of leading owners and breeders, under the patronage of King Alfonso, and at the head of whom are the Marquis de Martorell, the Count de la Cimera, the Marquis de Villamejor and the Marquis de San-Miguel are founding a jockey club on the English and French lines.

VAST ASSEMBLAGE SEES BOWIE RACING

Springlike Weather Brings Out Huge Attendance—Jockey Butwell Rides Three Winners.

BOWIE, Md., April 3.—A return of clear springlike weather, which made wraps a burden, and vastly improved transportation, from both Baltimore and Washington, attracted a vast assemblage to Prince George Park today, which compared in numbers with that of the opening day. They witnessed the running of a good card, which lacked a nominal feature. The Cornelius Fellowes entry, Oleaster, repeated her Jefferson Park success by a good victory over Calvert, a highly-bred newcomer, which had worked well at Pimlico.

The rule which couples horses of different ownership in the hands of the same trainer operated in the second, when Jack Leary won. Tiger Rose, a heavily backed favorite, ran poorly, while Loyal Peter, the runner-up and a good looker, showed a splendid performance. Margery repeated her victory of opening day over Refugee and others in the third.

The colors of G. W. J. Bissell, the Pittsburgh millionaire, were victorious when Sister Emblem won the stable's first victory of the season. Kewessa was palpably short and was weakly ridden. He was heavily supported.

An outstanding incident of today's racing was the riding of jockey Butwell, the veteran saddle artist piloting three winners—Jack Leary in the second, Sister Emblem in the fourth and Harry Breivogel in the fifth.

The Gwynn Tompkins stable of eight head arrived at Pimlico today from Warrenton, Va.

The Havre de Grace officials have been assured of a special train service to the track, which will eliminate the bus journey from the village, made necessary by war conditions last year.

The W. B. and A. has placed an additional race train on the Bowie service schedule.

Huda's Brother was so severely injured by kicking at the heels of Puts and Calls on Wednesday that trainer Arthur despairs of saving him and may have him destroyed.

Steeplechase jockey Norman Kennedy, recently discharged from the army, has contracted to ride for J. E. Griffith for the year 1919.

UNITED HUNTS ASSOCIATION TO BUILD

Jockey Club Gives a Hearing to Jockeys Loftus and Other Riders Under Suspension.

NEW YORK, N. Y., April 3.—The United Hunts Association has decided to erect a temporary grandstand for its coming two-day meeting at Belmont Park Terminal on June 14 and 21. To facilitate matters the Piping Rock Association has extended the use of its movable boxes for the two days, which will be placed in the front row of a line of bleachers which will be installed where the old grandstand used to be that was burned down three years ago.

James Rowan, the old time rider of steeplechasers, and the father of the present jockeys Thomas and Maurice Rowan, died at his home in Hempstead yesterday. Thirty years ago the late Mr. Rowan rode in many of the prominent steeplechases and won several. Most of his engagements were on horses belonging to James Kernochan.

The National Steeplechase and Hunt Association held a meeting today. No business of importance was transacted, routine affairs only being discussed.

There was a meeting of the license committee of the Jockey Club held today in the offices of the Jockey Club, at which all jockeys whose licenses have been held up appeared before the officials to plead their cause. The statements were recorded in each case, after which the applications were discussed. The license committee, after due consideration, will recommend whether they deem advisable for the interest of racing, either for reinstatement of the riders under the ban or the continuance of suspension, as the case deserves. The committee is composed of H. K. Knapp, Andrew Miller and F. R. Hitchcock. Among the jockeys present were John Loftus, Lawrence Lykes, G. Byrne, F. McGraw and W. Ward.

BRADLEY HORSES IN GOOD HEALTH

LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 3.—Dick Thompson, who is in charge of E. R. Bradley's breeding and racing interests, came over from Lexington and is a visitor at Churchill Downs. He stated that all of the horses under his care are all doing finely, with not a single sick one among them. The horses to be campaigned by the stable this spring are still at the farm, but will be transferred to the Lexington track April 15. Mr. Bradley, who has been in Florida all winter, is due to return to Lexington in a few days.

J. Oliver Keene, a member of the Kentucky State Racing Commission, and part owner of the Waldeck Stable, came over from Lexington for the purpose of inspecting the stable's horses in trianing at Churchill Downs. Mr. Keene was well pleased with their appearance, and declared that all of them would be ready for the opening of the Lexington meeting. The entire stable will be transferred to the Lexington track the latter part of this week, when the stable's horses being trained by Ham Keene at Hot Springs will be shipped from that point.

Dave Nicoll, who headed the list of winning jockeys in this country a number of years back, and who was recently mustered out of the national army, is now employed at Douglas Park galloping the horses belonging to ex-jockey Roscoe Goose.

A. D. Steele, manager of the Waldeck Stud, is a visitor at Churchill Downs. He stated that most of the nineteen mares on the place are now in foal to Master Robert or Boots and Saddle. Recently the mare Willco foaled a fine looking youngster by Boots and Saddle. Crestwood Girl and Ruth are both in foal to this young stallion.

ARGENTINE PRICES STILL RUN HIGH

The Gran Premio Nacional, one of the biggest stakes run in the Argentine, was won by the Rosales Stud's filly Omega, which is by Your Majesty—Alfa. The distance of the race was one and one-half miles and 100 yards, and it was worth $32,855 to the winner. No doubt the revolution has temporarily put an end to racing in the Argentine, but it was going strongly over there up to last November, and young thoroughbreds were realizing great prices. The El Moro Stud sold thirty-eight two-year-olds at an average of about $5,300 each, and thirty-nine from the Chapadmalal Stud averaged $4,850. One of the amusing arguments that the anti-totalizator division used to put forward was that the machine invariably dealt a death blow to bloodstock prices, whereas it built them in the Argentine, where there is no other form of race course speculation. It must be added, though, that with the government taking more than two-thirds of the commission from investments the totalizator cannot be of much assistance monetarily to either breeding or racing.

TWO-YEAR-OLDS ATTRACT ATTENTION

Many Promising Youngsters Training at Louisville Tracks—Sam Freedman Valued at $25,000.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 3.—The close approach of the Kentucky racing season of 1919, which opens at Lexington on April 24, is reflected in the advanced condition of the horses in training at Churchill Downs and Douglas Park, attributable in great measure to the unusually open winter and the almost entire absence of sickness among the horses.

The spring training season can now be said to be in full swing and under conditions quite exceptionally promising. With the Lexington meeting now less than four weeks away there is no question at all that the horses will be tuned up and ready for the opening.

Interested crowds have daily been watching the horses at work. The gallops of the several Kentucky Derby eligibles naturally command wide attention, but the doings of the two-year-olds are not overlooked. Of the latter considerable interest is centered in the twenty-five royally-bred juveniles that William "Chuck" Walker is handling for John E. Madden. These youngsters, when they appear on the Churchill Downs track in groups of eight or nine, always command instant attention from the assembled throng. The ones most talked about are a brown colt by Tracery—Royal Coinage, for which Mr. Madden paid $13,500, and a chestnut colt by Ogden—Round the World, which is said to have cost his owner $6,500. Both these colts have displayed speed in their preliminary trials, having shown up better than any of the others.

The fine band of juveniles belonging to the Waldeck Stable that are quartered at Churchill Downs are also the subject of much favorable comment whenever they make their appearance on the track. All are grand lookers and are probably better seasoned than any other band of youngsters at the track. They wintered at New Orleans, where they were not given any racing, owing to the bad track conditions prevailing at the southern course. The critics have already selected a coming turf star out of this big band, this being a brown colt by Luke McLuke—Micaela, a big rangy animal, level headed and with a superb gait. J. Oliver Keene, one of the owners of the stable, values this colt highly, and is reported to have said that he would not part with him for any amount of money.

SENSATIONAL WORK-OUT.

Everybody at the Downs is talking about the sensationally fast two-year-old Sam Freedman, in the stable of Joe Umensetter. This colt is credited with having worked three-eighths in 33⅘, the fastest time ever made since the track was built, over forty-five years ago. This trial took place over a month ago and was witnessed by a number of horsemen, who could hardly believe their eyes when their watches recorded the record-breaking time. Sam Freedman is a bay colt by Pataud—Femesole, by Sir Dixon—Cherry Blosson, by Powhattan, and was bred by J. E. Madden, who sold him to Piatt & Carr for $350. The latter believed the colt to be "thick winded" and sold him at auction for $525 to Oscar Rehm, a Louisville business man, who turned him over to Joe Umensetter to train, at the same time giving him a half interest in the colt. During one of Mr. Madden's visits to the Downs last winter he offered Umensetter $2,500 for the colt, which was declined. The price has steadily risen, and Umensetter now declares he will not part with the colt for less than $25,000. Mr. Rehm is opposed to selling the colt at any price.

Dan Lehan has a trio of good looking two-year-olds that he believes will make their mark at the coming meeting. He takes particular pride in them, inasmuch as they are the products of his own breeding farm. The most promising one is Alex Jr., a chestnut colt, by Ballot—Bronzewing, a winner of the Kentucky Oaks. Easter Flower, a chestnut filly, by Free Lance—Rose Ring, is also an impressive looking youngster, resembling her sire to a marked degree. The other youngster has been named Springvale, being a chentunt filly, by Free Lance—Mescal. This one is the property of John Churchill of this city. The other horses in the Lehan stable include the pair of four-year-olds Brig of War and The Toff and the three-year-old Loreno Moss. The stable will be shipped to Lexington for that meeting and jockey Harry Gray will do the riding.

HAVANA HORSES REACH LEXINGTON

LEXINGTON, Ky., April 3.—Nine horses arrived at the Kentucky Association track this morning from Cuba. They were Waterford, St. Jude and Butcher Boy, property of Ross & Looney, each a winner of two races at Oriental Park; Circulate and Colle, belonging to E. P. O'Meara; Miss Jazbo and The Gleamer, sent by Tom Brown, and Old Red and Linkstrap, property of S. Baxter. James Gass will train the Ross & Looney horses.

Jockey H. J. Burke, under contract to H. H. Hewitt, has reported to trainer John I. Smith at the local track. Jockey Merimee has reported to J. C. Milam, who also has Johnny Morys under contract.

E. R. Bradley came in last night from Palm Beach and spent the day inspecting his Idle Hour Farm and horses. He will remain here until after the spring race meeting. His foreign-bred mare, May Bird, has a bay colt by Helmet. Chrisophine, property of the Short Grass Stud Company, has a fine, big bay filly by Short Grass.

The name My Ballot has been awarded George Starr for the two-year-old chestnut filly by Ballot—Tavalara. She is being trained by her owner tnd is said to be a high-class racing prospect.

Dr. J. C. Carrick's Flying Star has a bay colt by Sweep.

This was an off day in the matter of gallops at the local track. The work watchers found trainers are considerably alarmed at the coughing of their two-year-olds. Superintendent James P. Ross today attributed the coughing to dust rather more than anything else. "As soon as we have a rain the two-year-olds will get over it," said he.

ETERNAL WORKS THE DERBY ROUTE

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., April 3.—Visitors and work watchers were given something to talk about when for the first time this year Eternal, James W. McClelland's Kentucky Derby candidate, was sent over the Derby route, one and one-quarter miles in a gallop this morning at Oaklawn Park. He acquitted himself creditably in covering the distance in 2:09⅘. He was ridden by a lightweight exercise boy who always gallops him and was under restraint throughout. His fractions were 25, 50, 1:16, 1:42, 1:55. He pulled up in good condition and cooled out quickly. He is the first of the Derby eligibles to go that far and his work-out satisfied both owner McClelland and trainer Patterson that there is no danger of his not being a stayer.

The Wanderer, Eternal's stablemate, ran the same distance in 2:14. His time for the first mile was 1:44. He was in the middle of the track most of the way.

MORMON IS BADLY BEATEN

Kilmer's Derby Candidate Shows He Will Not Do in Mud.

Rainfall Spoils the Oaklawn Going and Brings Unexpected Results—Track Talk.

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., April 3.—Rain which began this morning and continued steadily during the afternoon brought a change in track conditions and gave the mud runners an opportunity to show at their best. The change in weather resulted in a decreased attendance, but the racing did not suffer, for the finishes were close in most instances. Surprises were again plentiful, with Mormon, carrying the W. S. Kilmer colors, furnishing the chief upset by his failure in the feature race, a dash of three-quarters, for three-year-olds exclusively. He was a pronounced choice and received a decisive beating by Docod and Silvery Light. On his showing today his Kentucky Derby pretentions are exploded, and he must be accepted as ordinary, for he had no mishaps in this afternoon's race and failed badly. Docod, on the other hand, displayed a high order of speed for the first half mile, but the last sixteenth found him tiring fast, and but for the fact that Silvery Light was in close quarters in the last sixteenth the finish might have been reversed, with Silvery Light the victor.

The claiming handicap at five and a half furlongs, contested by some fast ones, proved an easy task for Paddy, which displayed a pronounced ability to run well in the slushy going, and disposing of Legotal with ease after going a half mile won as his rider pleased. Legotal barely escaped losing second placed.

Guy, which was backed by the Texans for a king's ransom in his last start, was for some reason neglected in the opening race, in which a poor band met, but he sprinted away from his opponents without difficulty to win comfortably from Magikon, on which an old-fashioned killing had been planned. The favorite, Rayonnant, was never prominent in the running, and Johnson pulled him up in the last sixteenth.

Lucius was much the best in the going over those he met in the second race and easily led High Horse and Little String home.

The fifth race enabled Harry D. to score a lucky victory by virtue of being clear of interference. With the same kind of racing luck Scarpia II. and Langden would have landed in front of him. The showing of Billie B. in the race was a poor one and he finished far back.

Philistine showed a sudden return to life in the final race and he spreadeagled his opponents for the entire way. Queen Blonde and Ellison divided the most attention in the race, but Queen Blonde could do no better than land second and Ellison gave it up after he had gone three-quarters.

Starter A. B. Dade was forced to work shorthanded today, William Snyder, one of his assistants, being called to Memphis, Tenn., by the death of his mother, while James Osborne, another of his aids, was on the sick list. Hugh Gilmore left today for Lexington, Ky., to school the two-year-olds there for Dade.

The J. H. Rosseter horses, in charge of trainer C. J. Casey, will be sent to Lexington, Ky., immediately following the close here. Jockey Albert Johnson and H. Hamilton will go with them.

Jockey Connelly returned to the saddle today after a lay-off of several days, occasioned by a fall with Aldebaran.

FOUR MORE WINNERS FOR T. MURRAY

HAVANA, Cuba, April 3.—For the third day in succession jockey T. Murray rode four winners. Besides his winning mounts today Murray had one second and two thirds to his credit.

There was a decided improvement to the sport today, the fields being composed of a much better class of horses than those which participated in the racing of Wednesday. Keenly contested races were in order, and the finishes in the majority of them were close and hard fought.

In the third Storm Bound beat the heavily backed U Twenty-Three by a neck. The winner came from behind and finished with a rush. Sister Susie made a runaway affair of the fourth and beat Manganese by half a length. In the fifth Dimitri lasted long enough to beat Sweet Alyssum by a head after being carried wide by Premium when entering the homestretch. Point to Point set a terrific pace in the fifth, but tired at the end and Fritz Ernst beat him a length and a half. The first mile was run in 1:38⅘.

Several horses changed hands. J. Cardenas claimed Dragon Rock for $1,150, while M. Lowenstein claimed Fritz Ernst for $1,150.

ENGLISH VIEW OF THE PARI-MUTUELS

There is much agitation in some English newspapers about the pari-mutuel system. The current Badminton Magazine says of it:

"Advocates and opponents of the pari-mutuel seem to be about equally divided. Any legitimate way of obtaining funds which could be applied to the improvement of breeding and the augmenting of stakes is to be welcomed, and it is proposed to apply a percentage of pari-mutuel receipts to these purposes. On the other hand it is urged by some that the introduction of the machine would most likely diminish the popularity of racing, and so lead to decreased attendance, reducing gate money, the most important source of revenue. The question of the legality of the method of speculation has still to be settled, and would have first of all to be considered."

DARK LEGEND'S KING-EMPEROR CUP

There were seven starters for the King-Emperor's Cup at the Calcutta meeting, and it was easily won by the English-bred horse Dark Legend, which was third in the English Derby won by Gay Crusader. Dark Legend is by Dark Ronald—Golden Legend, and was bought for India by the Maharajah of Jodhpore. The latter died a few months ago, and on the horses he had owned being put up to auction J. Galstaun gave $33,650 for Dark Legend. The King-Emperor's Cup, which was originally known as The Trials, and is run at a mile, takes place a few days prior to the Viceroy's Cup.

DEER HUNTING IN OREGON

Home of the Black Tail and Mule Species and a Sportsman's Paradise.

Oregon, rightly called the Hunters' Paradise abounds with the fleetfooted deer, writes Miss Blanche Riddle in Sports Afield. The leafy forests and the tree-clad mountains offer an ideal home for the stealthy deer, where she rears her young and roams unmolested, all but two months of the year. Oregon's game laws protect the deer, and in no other state are the laws regulating game more rigidly enforced.

The species of deer hunted in Oregon during the open season, between August and late October, are the black tailed and mule deer, which often attain to a weight of 150 pounds or more. East of the Cascade Mountains, in eastern Oregon, the mule deer can be found. This species is much heavier and somewhat more gamy than the black tailed deer.

Every part of Oregon may be considered the home of the deer, and many thousands of them are killed every year; but southern Oregon is especially famed for its happy hunting grounds. The hunters are taken by automobile, wagon or pack horse to the hunting grounds, and when they have finished the hunt are brought back to the railway.

The deer, during the open season, range well back in the mountains and have become no easy prey for the hunter. The wary buck has to be really hunted to be found. The horns of many at this season of the year are yet in the velvet, while his color is a bluish red which makes it hard indeed to see him against the reddening shades of the woods.

It is not an unusual sight, during the open season in southern Oregon, to see auto loads of hunters of every walk in life—merchants, bankers, railroad employes, etc.—leaving the towns for the various hunting grounds, nor is it more unusual to see them returning with the trophies of the hunt—the heavily laden horse or truck load of slaughtered deer. Not alone does this part of Oregon afford pleasure for the visiting sportsman from all parts of the west, but the old-timers and younger generations as well, who were born and reared in Oregon, are hunters from first to last.

In one southern Oregon town a venison barbecue is held every fall during the deer season. The minimum number barbecued at this feast is twenty-five bucks, and can be more. At this celebration the meat is roasted in long trenches over hot coals. Sticks are laid across the trenches and the meat laid on the sticks. Seasoned to a turn and roasted, this meat makes the finest meal imaginable. An open dancing pavilion, seats, electric lights and every convenience is provided in this barbecue park, and fortunate indeed is the visitor to the venison barbecue. Barring the few accidents which occasionally occur, of injured fingers and shot-off toes, and sometimes even more serious, the sport of hunting deer in Oregon is looked forward to with a great deal of pleasure by many of the most noted sportsmen of the west.

MUCH GAME FOR MARYLAND PRESERVES

BALTIMORE, Md., April 3.—State Game Warden Le Compte has gone on a long trip after the game ordered for propagation purposes in this state. The first stop of his long journey will be at Kansas City, Mo., where he will see the Holmes Zooiogical Arena Company in regard to the 500 ring-neck pheasants ordered. From there he will go to San Antonio, Tex., and meet Dr. Frank Kent, who has the contract to furnish 20,000 Mexican quail ordered. It is understood that both Mr. Le Compte and Dr. Kent will make a journey into Mexico to investigate game conditions in that country with the idea of securing the full number of quail that are to be shipped here this spring.

Mr. Le Compte will also visit Portales, New Mexico, where the 1,000 cottontail rabbits were to be shipped from.

NEW YORK BUCK LAW REPEALED

ALBANY, N. Y., April 3.—The state assembly has passed the Everett bill repealing the buck law and permitting hunters to shoot but one deer of either sex hereafter instead of the two bucks now allowed. The bill now goes to the senate for action.

The assembly also passed the Cowee bills, changing the trout law to permit the taking of twenty-five trout in a day instead of ten pounds now permitted; reducing from fifteen to ten the number of black bass that may be taken in a day by an angler and increasing to $20.50 the license fee for unnaturalized persons or aliens for hunting licenses.

City, county and town clerks issuing such licenses are permitted to require applicants to produce their citizenship papers if they have any doubts as to whether or not the applicant is an alien.

JACK RABBIT HUNTING IN SNOW

BRIGHAM, Utah, April 3.—Jack rabbits infest the arid lands on the promontory forty miles west of Brigham City, and, in fact, the entire western part of Box Elder County. Every winter excursions are run over the Canadian Pacific Railroad to the promontory from Ogden and Brigham for a day's shoot, and the bunnies are slaughtered by the thousands.

Upon these occasions the hunters form in a great circle in the hills back of the lake, then begin the drive toward the lake shore, pushing the rabbits ahead of them, finally corralling them literally between the devil and the deep sea, as it were, and dispatching them with alacrity. These occasions are always timed when the snow is the right depth.

FEATS OF U. S. CAVALRY HORSES

Endurance Journey of Military Service by Chargers of American Army.

The United States has a larger supply of horses than any other country in the world. Yet, in spite of this, we are one of the most poorly supplied with cavalry mounts. Returned army officers have just started a movement to better this condition.

W. R. Brown, president of the Arabian Horse Club of America, Washington, has started an open discussion upon the question of what constitutes a satisfactory test for young horses in the fall of their three-year-old form to prove them of sufficient soundness, speed and endurance to qualify for cavalry mounts after they reach maturity. He also wishes opinions upon what should constitute a longer and more severe test for mature horses to parallel the most severe exercise they would have to undergo in actual war conditions.

It is interesting to dig up some of the famous rides in American history. The old Indian days were full of them. In most cases the names of the men who performed the exploits are gone. There comes to us the story of an unknown express rider in Texas who carried mail from El Paso to Chihuahua, a distance of 300 miles, with a weight of 200 pounds, taking a week to go and a week to return. The aspect of especial interest in the present discussion is the fact that the rider used the same pony continuously for six months without diminishing either his flesh or his fire. The country was infested with Apaches and the man had to ride by night and hide during the day. He rode a hundred miles at a stretch and rested his pony four days between trips.

In 1879 several single couriers of General Wesley Merritt's company rode 170 miles in less than twenty-four hours. This was at the rate of seven miles an hour. Again in 1880 there is the record of four men of the First Cavalry carrying dispatches from Fort Harmony to Fort Warner, 140 miles in twenty-two hours, or at the rate of six and four-tenths miles an hour. The horses were in good condition at the end of the ride and after a day's rest made the return trip at the rate of sixty miles a day.

All such endurance tests are extremely interesting but hardly of vital importance to the present situation. There has never been a continuity of similar tests over a considerable length of time. Without doubt a test can be devised which will show the true endurance of a horse and can be continued year after year.

RHODE ISLAND SEEKS CHINOOK SALMON

The fame of the chinook salmon in Massachusetts is attracting the attention of Rhode Island anglers.

"If Massachusetts fishermen are having such great sport hooking Chinook salmon, why should the pleasure be denied Rhode Islanders?" asks the Providence Journal.

"According to Commissioner Graham," continues the Journal, "the salmon now being caught in Bay State ponds were placed there as fingerlings three years ago. Surely if Massachusetts can bring the eggs from California and develop them in the hatcheries Rhode Island should be able to duplicate the work.

"Salmon caught last season in Massachusetts ran from three to twelve pounds in weight. A few fingerlings placed in Moswansicut and Wallum Lakes and a few of the ponds next season would no doubt repay in sport three years hence all the financial stress and work necessary to starting a great movement."

NEW YORKER'S LUCKY TARPON

Capt. F. H. Schauffler, a New Yorker, has just returned from Fort Myers, Fla., where he took the record tarpon of the season, a silver king weighing 164 pounds that was seven feet one inch in length.

Strange as it may seen, Captain Schauffler took the prize on his first fishing trip for tarpon and on the first day that he ever wet a line for this aerobatic leaper of the Florida waters.

The fish fought five hours and thirteen minutes and the reason for this was that the tarpon threw the hook, but luckily for the angler it caught in the dorsal fin and in this manner the fish was fought for hours, it being a nip-and-tuck battle as to whether the angler could bring the fish to the boat or the silver king regain its liberty. The angler won, the fight lasting from the afternoon until night.
